Join us for an evening of poetry readings and live music!!!

Do you po-et-oke?

Join us in this new movement!
We supply the listing of poems and you provide the reading!

Original pieces are welcome, too.

But keep the content clean - this is a family event!

The Rules:

- Material should be suitable for all ages.
- Read as many pieces as you'd like throughout the evening, everyone gets a turn!
 - It's your turn when the mic is open.
- Have fun, and bring friends and family!
