

R.E.A.D. Series

“Reading Education and Development”

Sponsored by the Winter Haven Library and the City of Winter Haven

The R.E.A.D. Series is an educational program designed to offer information and resources to the public regarding learning concerns, such as dyslexia, auditory processing disorders, and other educational issues. The series offers workshops and seminars on a monthly basis to the public free of charge. Check out the Fall/Spring 2011-2012 schedule.

FALL 2011

Sat. September 17 Struggling Readers: Who, What, and Why
Sat. October 15 Young Readers: How to Help Them Get Started
Sat. November 19 Could it be Dyslexia?
December No Class – Happy Holidays!

SPRING 2012

Sat. January 21 Reading Comprehension: 7 Keys to Success
Sat. February 18 Could It Be Dyslexia?
Sat. March 17 Struggling Readers: Who, What, and Why
Sat. April 21 Auditory Processing Disorder (APD)
Sat. May 19 Thinking About Home Schooling?

Instructor: Lynda McCartney ABC Tutoring Services

All classes are held the 3rd Saturday of the month and begin at 2:00 pm in the Children’s Story Hour Room. Registration is not required.

For More Information Contact:

The Winter Haven Library at 291-5880

or

Lynda McCartney at 863-293-6172

R.E.A.D. Series